2^d INTERNATIONAL CONFERENCE

"THE GLOBAL CHALLENGES FOR ENVIRONMENTAL AND RESOURCE ECONOMICS IN CENTRAL AND EASTERN EUROPEAN COUNTRIES: SAFETY, SECURITY, AND SUSTAINABILITY" (GCERECEEC'2014)

<http://gcereceec.org.ua/>

October 9-11, 2014
Faculty of Economics
Taras Shevchenko National University
Kyiv, Ukraine

DEAR COLLEAGUES,

Taras Shevchenko National University of Kyiv, one of the most famous institutions of higher education in Central and Eastern Europe, founded in 1834, is proudly inviting you to participate in the international conference "GCERECEEC'2014" to emphasize the significance and value of Central and Eastern Europe in development of the topic.

Environment and development concerns will remain on the agendas, although the financial and economic crises have diverted attention from global and local environmental threats and natural resource management issues in developing and developed economies. This Second Conference is intended to give an echo to these concerns and welcome papers on topics related with the so-called three pillars of sustainable development: a better environment, good economic performance and poverty reduction as targeted by the Millennium Development Goals. The Conference is intended to share research and gather feedbacks on work in progress and completed papers as well. It will bring together theoretical and / or applied papers relying either on theoretical and / or econometric modelling, and putting forward policy implications posited in international and national agendas. Contributions borrowing from different scientific fields will also be considered. The Conference will include two round-tables and on-line session as well as plenary one dealing with major issues of sustainable development in developing and transition economies.

For thematic sessions, you are invited to contribute on the following topics:
